 44 MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

45 1. As used in this section, unless the context
 46 otherwise requires:

47 a. "Designated state service" means one of the 48 following services provided to state agencies:
 49 printing, information technology, mail, human resource
 50 benefits and payroll, financial accounting, property

1 management, fleet management, and purchasing services.

2 b. "Managed competition" means a process that 3 allows both state government entities and nonstate 4 government entities to submit competitive bids to 5 provide designated state services, which process takes 6 into account the true cost-accounting costs for state 7 government entities and may result in multiple 8 providers of the same designated state service. The 9 use of managed competition shall not preclude the use 10 of other entrepreneurial steps in any area.

11 2. a. The department of administrative services
 12 may, pursuant to the requirements of this section, 13 determine how the designated state services of all
 14 executive branch agencies, community-based corrections

15 districts, and other state governmental entities shall 16 be delivered. In addition, the state board of regents 17 shall participate in any determination of the 18 department of administrative services on the delivery
19 of designated state services as provided by this 20 section but only if both the department and state 21 board of regents approve such participation.

22 b. This section shall not apply to the judicial 23 branch, legislative branch, statewide elected
24 officials, area education agencies, and community
25 colleges.

26 3. The following duties relating to state
27 administrative services shall be performed as provided 28 by this subsection.

29 a. By July 1, 2004, the department of 30 administrative services shall submit a request for 31 proposals for a managed competition for printing 32 services. The request for proposals shall allow for 33 the awarding of all or parts of printing services to 34 the department or another governmental agency or 35 nongovernmental entity.

36 b. Subject to the requirements provided in chapter 37 8A, the department of administrative services shall 38 determine the means of delivery for all information 39 technology services, including determining which 40 services shall remain the responsibility of individual 41 state agencies. The department shall determine which 42 application development activities shall remain as 43 responsibilities of the individual state agencies. As 44 of July 1, 2003, all employees delivering information 45 technology services shall be transferred to the 46 department of administrative services or applicable 47 delivering agency and any funding appropriated for 48 such services shall also be transferred, as determined 49 by the department of management.

50 c. The three major data centers of state

1 government shall be physically merged into one data
2 center as expeditiously as possible, no later than 3 July 1, 2004.

4 d. The department of administrative services may 5 limit unified fleet management responsibilities to 6 cars and small trucks. By July 1, 2005, the fleet
7 management operations shall be subject to a managed 8 competition process conducted by the department of 9 administrative services. Any one-time savings shall 10 be amortized based on state government's average 11 borrowing cost for funds over the preceding five 12 years.

13 4. The auditor of state shall be consulted

14 regarding the decision to conduct a managed
 15 competition process under this section for each 16 designated state service and shall also be consulted 17 regarding the issuance of a request for proposals and 18 shall also be consulted in the award process. The 19 auditor of state's role is to provide advice as to 20 whether an approach offers the best opportunity for 21 reducing state government costs.
 22 5. The department of administrative services shall 23 submit a written report to the legislative government 24 oversight committee by December 31, 2003, concerning 25 the progress made by the department in complying with 26 the requirements of this section as well as any other 27 suggestions or recommendations of the department
 28 concerning the requirements of this section."
 29 15. Title page, lines 3 and 4, by striking the 30 words "making appropriations."
 31 16. By renumbering as necessary.

2 1. Page 2, by inserting after line 25 the
3 following:
4 "Sec. __. Section 56.13, Code 2003, is amended by 5 striking the section and inserting in lieu thereof the 6 following:
7 56.13 INDEPENDENT EXPENDITURES.
8 1. As used in this section, "independent 9 expenditure" means an expenditure for a communication 10 that expressly advocates the election or defeat of a 11 clearly identified candidate or the passage or defeat
12 of a ballot issue that is made without the prior 13 approval or coordination with a candidate, candidate's 14 committee, or a ballot issue committee.
15 2. An individual who meets all of the following
16 criteria shall file an independent expenditure
17 statement:
18 a. The individual is not a candidate.
19 b. The individual is acting independently and not 20 in coordination with another individual, organization,
21 or committee.
22 c. The individual makes one or more independent
23 expenditures in excess of seven hundred fifty dollars 24 in the aggregate to advocate the election or defeat of 25 one or more candidates or the passage or defeat of one 26 or more ballot issues.
27 3. a. Any combination of two or more individuals, 28 or a person other than an individual, that makes one 29 or more independent expenditures in excess of seven 30 hundred fifty dollars in the aggregate to advocate the 31 election or defeat of one or more candidates or the 32 passage or defeat of one or more ballot issues shall 33 file an independent expenditure statement.
34 b. Sections 56.5, 56.5A, 56.6, and 56.7 shall not 35 apply to persons meeting the requirements of paragraph 36 "a".

37 c. This subsection shall not apply to a candidate, 38 candidate's committee, state statutory political 39 committee, county statutory political committee, or a 40 political committee.

41 4. a. An independent expenditure statement shall 42 be filed within forty-eight hours of the making of an 43 independent expenditure in excess of seven hundred 44 fifty dollars in the aggregate.

45 b. An independent expenditure statement shall be 46 filed with the board and the board shall immediately
47 make the independent expenditure statement available
48 for public viewing.

49 c. For purposes of this section, an independent 50 expenditure is made at the time that the cost is

1 incurred.

2 5. The independent expenditure statement shall 3 contain all of the following information:

4 a. Identification of the individuals or persons
5 filing the statement.

6 b. Description of the position advocated by the 7 individuals or persons with regard to the clearly 8 identified candidate or ballot issue.

9 c. Identification of the candidate or ballot issue
10 benefited by the independent expenditure.

11 d. The dates on which the expenditure or 12 expenditures took place or will take place.

13 e. Description of the nature of the action taken 14 that resulted in the expenditure or expenditures.

15 f. The fair market value of the expenditure or 16 expenditures.

17 6. Any person making an independent expenditure 18 shall comply with the attribution requirements of 19 section 56.14.

20 7. a. The board shall develop, prescribe,
21 furnish, and distribute forms for the independent
22 expenditure statements required by this section.

23 b. The board shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 24 17a for the implementation of this section."

25 2. By renumbering as necessary.
